

DAVID TRINNES

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

David Trinnés brings a wealth of diverse experience to his role as a litigator at Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig. With a background spanning both plaintiff and defense representation, David offers a well-rounded perspective including a deep understanding of the intricacies of insurance law.

Before joining the firm's litigation division, David honed his skills as an insurance defense attorney, representing clients in matters spanning various areas including workers' compensation defense throughout Virginia and DC. His experience on the defense side provides him with valuable insights into the strategies and tactics employed by insurance companies, allowing him to effectively advocate for his clients' interests.

In addition to his work in insurance defense, David has a broad legal background that encompasses criminal defense, domestic relations, tort, traffic, employment, business law, and appeals. His diverse practice experience equips him with the versatility and adaptability necessary to tackle a wide range of legal issues and effectively advocate for clients across different practice areas.

During law school, David distinguished himself through his commitment to public service and legal advocacy. He served as a Law Clerk for the American Bar Association's Governmental Affairs Office, where he gained valuable experience in legislative analysis and policy research. Additionally, he worked as a Law Clerk for the Administrative Office of the United States Courts' Bankruptcy Court Administration Division, assisting in matters related to bankruptcy law and court administration.

David's dedication to his clients, combined with his comprehensive legal knowledge and experience, makes him a valuable asset to Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig. Whether representing plaintiffs or defendants in insurance litigation matters or providing counsel in a variety of other legal areas, David is committed to achieving favorable outcomes for his clients and upholding the highest standards of legal advocacy.
